

Ahmet Candemir

Institut Agro Rennes-Angers
Department of Social Sciences
Research Unit UMR SMART

Angers Campus
2, rue André Le Nôtre 49045 Angers/France
ahmet.candemir@institut-agro.fr

Title and Interests

Maître de conférences (Associate Professor) in economics

Currently working on:
cooperatives, agricultural sustainability and supply/value chains

Employment

Institut Agro Rennes-Angers 2024 permanent position

Université de Rennes 2 2023 short term post-doc

Université de Rennes -IUT St-Malo 2022-2023 ATER-temporary researcher and lecturer

INRAE Rennes 2022 short term post-doc

Education

Ph.D. Agricultural Economics, Institut Agro Rennes-Angers/INRAE, 2021

Master Agricultural Economics, CIHEAM-IAMM/Institut Agro Montpellier, 2018

Bachelor Economics, Middle East Technical University, 2017

Publications

Candemir, A., Duvaleix, S. and Latruffe, L. (2021). Agricultural cooperatives and farm sustainability—a literature review Journal of Economic Surveys

Barnes et al. (2021). Drivers of adoption of ecological approaches (LIFT project deliverable 2.3.)

Work in progress

Marketing channels and farmers' participation in organic certification: A European case study, with Sabine Duvaleix and Laure Latruffe

A theoretical rethinking of cooperative firm and the sustainability (solo paper)

Teaching

2023/2024, Economics of enterprise, Institut Agro Angers

2023/2024, Economics of landscape and horticultural value chains, Institut Agro Angers

2022/2023, Introductory statistics and mathematics for management, Université de Rennes - IUT de St Malo

2019/2020 and 2020/2021, Agri-food firms and nutritional public policies, Institut Agro Rennes

2019/2020 and 2020/2021, Quality choices in agri-food supply chains, Institut Agro Rennes

Last update: June 2024